

ACTIVE Awards

10 March 2023

Congratulations to the following ACTIVE Award winners:

- Cooper Harris for valuing your learning. You have been listening diligently and work hard to show those around you that you are prepared for learning. Ka Pai Cooper!
- Lucian White for being a strong learner that shows respect to your peers and teachers. You have worked hard to follow instructions and communicate when you need help.
- Luca Vujcich for being an empowered learner and a thoughtful member of our group
- Indie Heta for being a thoughtful member of our group, thinking of others and sharing your ideas. Ka pai
- Janine Cabuquit for being a strong learner and always giving everything a go. Ka pai to mahi Janine!
- Rowan Hudson for being a thoughtful member of our group, you are always willing to help others.
- Tilly Trevathan for being hard working and your positive attitude towards the learning
- Jade Moston for being a strong learner, following instructions and showing enjoyment in your learning
- Mason Mulitalo for being a respectful and courteous member of our Community and for your commitment to try your best in all learning areas. Ka pai Mason.
- Zariah Thompson for being a kind, caring and inclusive member of Puriri Community and always lending a helping hand. Tino pai rawa Zariah.
- Erin McKay for striving to complete your learning to a high standard. You take pride in everything you do by working diligently and carefully. Well done Erin!
- Emilio Saa Grimaldo for making sure everyone in your group is included. Your empathy and compassion is inspiring - thank you Emilio.
- Nathaniel Zhao for being a collaborative learner that ensures others feel valued. Thank you for practising compassion! We are lucky to have you.
- Shiloh Santos Marinar for bringing a positive attitude into our class and Community on a daily basis. You empower and inspire those around you. Ka pai Shiloh!
- Maddy Rossen-Morgan for being a responsible learner who is always willing to help others. Your kind and friendly nature is delightful to be around. Ka pai!
- Jorge Grangeiro Milhomem for the great effort and continued focus you are showing in your learning. Keep it up. Ka pai!
- Ethan Clydesdale for being a collaborative learner who values others. We appreciate the manaakitangata you show others.
- Olivia Fulford for being a diligent learner. You always take pride in everything you do.
- Jack Thomson for being an empowered learner, who is always focused, on task and encouraging others.
- Riataake Biira for being a kind and thoughtful leader in our Community. You are a true role model. Ko bati n rab'a.
- Lacey Mason for being a kind friend, supporting others when they were feeling nervous and always having a positive attitude!
- Hugo Dustan for having a positive attitude and being a kind, supportive friend towards others.
- Lui Hamilton for taking responsibility for your learning and settling in to your new school with positive attitude.
- Aliyah Obaray for your positive attitude towards your learning and new school. Well done Aliyah!
- Harrison Marsh for your engagement and enthusiasm to make your writing interesting and descriptive
- Arana Hatful for your positive attitude to learning and for always being ready to help.
- Eno Merja for your persistence and patience when learning new concepts.
- Ella Gu for consistently demonstrate the school values and being an ACTIVE learner.
- Kaylin Wech for showing determination when connecting to the authors purpose in the text. Kai pai Kaylin!
- Ava Repia-Redden for settling into a new school and learning Community with excitement and determination. Kai pai Ava!

- Louisa Price for positively approaching all learning, your collaborative and kind nature make you a valued member of Kauri Community!
- Michael Tairoa for demonstrating great focus and effort in your learning, keep up the great work!
- Tayla Crockett for being an excellent role model and dedicated learner. Your thinking and contributions are greatly valued within Kauri Community.
- Isaac Adolph for the enthusiasm you demonstrate towards your learning. You were so engaged during our museum trip and asked some wonderful questions. Well done!
- Elizabeth Williams for the way you notice others, reach out to them, and make them feel valued. You are a role model when it comes to showing manaakitanga.
- Lavan Singh for your calm, focused and independent approach to learning. You show great initiative.
- Thomas Lees for your determination during Swimming Sports. Watching your perseverance and dedication during your events was inspiring.
- Natalia Munro for embracing new challenges and thriving in your mathematics learning. You're becoming an empowered learner!
- Brayden May for showing manaaki to those around you by being an active listener. Thank you for respecting and valuing your classmates, Brayden.
- Chloe Kidd-Jung for extending aroha to others by showing kindness and compassion. You are a role model when it comes to showing manaakitanga.

