

ACTIVE Awards

9 June 2023

Congratulations to the following ACTIVE Award winners:

- Caspian Dodd for trying his best in his learning. Ka pai Caspian.
- Kalina Jevtic for a great start to school life and always giving things a go!
- Frederick Webb for your positive attitude to learning and being at school. You are a reliable role model to others. Tino pai Fred!
- Hiyansh Patel for being a role model of what a strong learner needs to do. You are a hard working, empowered learner. Ka Pai!
- Taiono Malona for being an empowered learner who always strives to do her best, especially during art. Fantastic mahi Taiono!
- Jason Gibbens for being a thoughtful learner who consistently shows manaakitanga for your peers and teachers. You are a star!
- Loretta Thomas for trying your best to be an active listener. You are making great choices with your learning.
- MD Bayazid for hosting our school assembly with such confidence and enthusiasm. Thank you for stepping up and doing the job with so much pride. Tino pai rawa!
- Evie Corry Ivanof for your consistent determination to succeed and meet your learning goals. This quality has seen you make some wonderful literacy gains, especially when blending sounds together. Tino pai rawa!
- Tui Brenchley for your confidence and enthusiasm for your learning. You always come prepared and are willing to give anything go. Ka rawe Tui!
- Toby Knapp for being a kind and considerate member of our group. Your gentle words and caring attitude fills up everyone's buckets around you. Thank you Toby.
- Levi Collins for being an empowered and collaborative learner! You are creating such wonderful friendships and have built a lot of confidence this year. Ka Pai!
- Tallulah Nicholls for your resilience. Your positive attitude and ability to persevere this term has helped others do the same. Wonderful effort Tilly!
- George Watt for your resilience and determination in all your learning. Fantastic effort George!
- Nina Kingi-Smith for being an empowered learner who takes initiative and is working well independently. Tino pai rawa!
- Ameera Kumar for your gentle and caring attitude towards everyone in our class. You are a respectful learner and an absolute joy to teach.
- Oliver De Felice for your determination to succeed in literacy this term. Keep shining brightly!
- Nivarah Te Paa for always showing manaakitanga towards your classmates and our environment. Mahi pai!
- Felix Yates for coming to kura with a positive mindset to learn and for taking takohanga/responsibility for your learning. Mīharo!
- Elliot Kose for being an empowered learner who independently takes learning to a new level. Everyone enjoys learning from you.
- Natia Talitimu for being a confident, and empowered learner. You are striving each and every day to be bigger and better than before. Keep it up!
- Eyla Read for your dedication and perseverance in learning. You are able to make the best decisions to improve your learning. We are proud of you Eyla!
- Amber-Jane Adams for your reliability and helpful attitude. You are always willing to support the Community and embrace the value of whakawhanaungatanga. Ka pai Amber-Jane.
- Elise Campbell for showing confidence and being adventurous. Thank you for representing The Miro Community by hosting our whole school assembly. Tino pai Elise.
- Braxton Jackson for being empowered and showing perseverance. You always work diligently to complete tasks that you begin. Ka pai, Braxton.
- Alice Calder for your determination to succeed in literacy and having a positive attitude. Keep it up!

- David Temoana for showing manakitanga towards your classmates and setting good examples in class. Kai Pai!
- Phoenix Goldsmith for your progress and determination which is admirable, So proud of confidence to enter the learning space and try all curriculum activities. Go Buddy!
- Diva Gitesh Shah for your precision and creativity in writing, makes an exciting read. Kai Pai!
- Brie Murphy for positively approaching all learning, your kind and thoughtful nature make you a valued member of our Community!
- Ivor McMartin for your determination to extend your understanding, particularly in Mathematics! Keep up the great work!
- Lacey Richards for demonstrating all the attributes of an ACTIVE learner. You are a true role model within our Community Lacey!
- Mazden Cox-Wickens for the dedication you have shown towards your learning particularly in literacy. I love reading your creative stories and you have made some great reading choices. Well done Mazden!
- Tamim Alwadi for crafting very thoughtful pieces of writing that are succinct and full of sophisticated vocabulary! What a pleasure they are to read. Keep up the initiative and effort!
- Cecelina Rambande Dewage for your active involvement in all our learning experiences with a positive, can-do attitude.
- Jacob Knapp for showing unwavering determination to succeed in your learning. You are making great progress in Reading, Writing and Mathematics.
- Jackson Callender for being an adventurous learner who often says 'yes' to new challenges, both inside and outside the Community.
- Micah Inojales for being an independent learner who comes to school ready to learn. You happily share your innovative and creative ideas with your teachers who love to hear them.
- James Gavin for developing confidence to express your thoughts. You are an empowered learner who is able to advocate for what you need.

