

ACTIVE Awards

12 May 2023

Congratulations to the following ACTIVE Award winners:

- Coco McRae for showing persistence and resilience as you work hard to settle into the new school term. Your Community appreciates your radiant energy.
- Grace Litchfield for being a thoughtful learner. Your Community appreciates the way you try to help those around you achieve their goals.
- Haleni Hatfull for your positive attitude towards all aspects of school. You approach all of your learning tasks with a smile and are always willing to help others.
- Keaten Beehre always coming to school ready to learn. You show kindness and caring to those around you and are often helping those in need. Kai pai
- Angela Robert for always going out of your way to help your peers and teachers. You're a star!
- Arlie Moore for always having a 'can do' attitude towards your learning. Ka pai Arlie
- Lucia Garcia for being an empowered learner as you take ownership of your learning. You work hard on all your tasks and complete it to a high standard. Ka pai Lucia!
- Tadhg Sullivan for being a role model to others of what a strong learner needs to do. You are ready for your learning by SHINEing and having a positive attitude. Ka pai Tadhg!
- Ernest Spenceley for actively engaging in all your learning with a positive attitude. You are a role model to other members of your learning team. Kai pai Ernie.
- Amila Ibrahim for your friendly and caring attitude towards other members in your learning team. You make an effort to help new students and they appreciate it! Tino pai Amila.
- Ruby Leggett for your growth and taking more risks in your learning. Your 'can do' attitude is a pleasure to be around. Tino pai rawa Ruby.
- Cooper Mackay for the way you thoughtfully share your ideas during class discussions. You have a wealth of knowledge and we appreciate you sharing it with us. Tino pai rawa Cooper.
- Sian Rawiri for settling so well into our Community and making lots of new friends. Welcome!
- Oliver Carnachan for displaying great thinking and listening skills. You always have something constructive to add to our shared learning. Well done Oliver!
- Fletcher Stapleford for being a buck-filler. You think of others around you and look for ways to encourage and help. You are amazing!
- Blake Stewart for being a thoughtful, positive member of 203. You always go out of your way for others and ensure everyone around you feels valued. Ka pai Blake!
- Aami Taubuki for the effort and patience you put into your work. You always take the time to do it to the best of your ability. Your attention to detail is wonderful. Akaka Aami!
- North Marter for developing your self management skills and approaching learning with a positive attitude. Tino pai rawa North!
- Paige Taylor for being a responsible and thoughtful learner. You demonstrate that you value your learning and strive to be the best that you can be. Tino pai Paige.
- Blake Montgomery for your perseverance during Writing. You have been taking on feedback and applying it to your learning.
- Mila Grimmer for your hard working attitude in every aspect of school life. You shine bright every day!
- Quinn Dormer for having a positive attitude to learning and taking responsibility for your learning by asking questions when you are stuck!
- Ryan Adolph for showing manawaroa (resilience) in your learning and being a caring friend to others.
- Cohen Higgins for being a thoughtful and kind learner who always has time to help others achieve their learning goal. Ka pai!
- Mila Scott for being a learner who is big, bright and shining. You are taking big risks in your learning and your confidence is growing. Keep growing, Mila!

- Hannah Spooner for your continued dedication to your learning, both at school and at home. Tino pai Hannah.
- Zane Jackson for your willingness to challenge yourself during Mathematics. You demonstrate flexibility and consideration to looking at problems in different ways. Well done.
- Alice Calder for your resilience and determination in all your learning. Well done Alice!
- Mele Fine for taking responsibility for your learning and actively seeking feedback to find ways to improve and learn. Well done Mele!
- Thea Dinsdale for being an empowered learner. You are always ready and focused on learning.
- Logan Parker for being a focused learner. When approaching a task you are always positive and seek help when needed.
- Blair Eddleston for your persistence and dedication to try all learning tasks independently. Mahi tika ana!
- Bethan Edge for your resilience and determination in all curriculum areas, giving everything a go and with a big smile to follow. Mahi tika ana!
- Charlie O'Shea for showing great focus in your learning, particularly in Writing where you generate creative and descriptive pieces.
- Yasmin Alwadi for demonstrating determination to extend your understanding, particularly in Mathematics. Keep up the great work!
- Rei Cowie for the dedication you show towards your learning and always showing kindness towards others.
- Kiadee Anderson-Forbes for being a helpful and caring member of our Community. You are greatly valued Kiadee, well done!
- Lukas Moa for being an empowered learner, especially in Mathematics, by accepting new challenges with focus, determination, and a good plan!
- Madeleine Thomson for bursting with initiative, positivity, and a strong work ethic. Oh, the places you will go!
- Ellie George for going above and beyond with your inquiry into sharks and sharing your thinking with us. You are an empowered learner.
- Jaxson Noyer for your dedication and growth in Writing. Your careful choice of words and language features make your writing a pleasure to read.
- Princess Masi for completing all your learning tasks, on time, and to the best of your ability. You are an empowered, independent learner.
- Nathan Arnesen for encouraging others around you in Mathematics. You show great leadership and manaakitanga to your group members.

